

FIREFLY receives generous donation to help support local families with food costs

Kenora, ON, January 12, 2023 – FIREFLY is pleased to share that we have received a generous donation of $10,000 from The Settlers Foundation Inc. The donation will support FIREFLY’s Minto EarlyON Child and Family Centre to provide essential and timely nutrition support to families with young children.

“I wish to express my gratitude for the generous donation of the Settlers Foundation. It will be much appreciated by the families that benefit from our food security services,” says Karen Campbell, Family Resource Worker.

The Minto EarlyON Child and Family Centre offer free programs to families and their young children that include information and support on child development and parenting as well as a variety of food and healthy living supports in Kenora.

“We are very grateful for this generous donation that will bring extra nutrition supports for children and families at the Minto EarlyON Centre,” says Karen Ingebrigtsen, CEO
